

“THRIVE”- AUAP NEWSLETTER (January –April 2022)

Greetings from Association of the Universities of Asia and the Pacific!

We hope this letter finds you in the best of health and spirits.

The Association of the Universities of the Asia and the Pacific (AUAP) is all set for another year of collaborative and impactful activities in the region with more rigor and enthusiasm. We wish to take forward our aim of fostering greater learning and development opportunities for all students and learners, and hope to facilitate them with an invaluable inter-university exchange of best practices, that helps them and their alma mater in discharging wider global responsibilities along with realizing their individual goals. This circumstance gives us immense pleasure and we are very happy to share with you all the newsletter of the Association, 'Thrive'! The vision of AUAP draws its inspiration from Belief, Collaboration, Synergy, Wisdom, Growth and Excellence. Thrive as a newsletter captures this spirit and energy.

As an esteemed patron of the Association, your support towards us opens up newer pathways, and gives us confidence in focusing on our vision of enabling quality standards for all.

Along with this Newsletter, we are also enclosing a simple content guidelines which we shall request you to keep in reference while submitting your content for the next AUAP newsletter May-August 2022.

As we move ahead into yet another year crystallizing collective academic development for all, we wish your continued support towards us and hope our connection reaches greater heights.

We look forward to your continued patronage.
