

The 1st AUAP-Bett Asia Leadership Summit, October 11-12, 2022, Bangkok, Thailand.

The Association in cooperation with Bett Asia will organize the Leadership Summit on October 11-12, 2022 in Athenee Hotel, Bangkok. This cutting-edge conference will showcase best practice and celebrate innovation from across the education technology sector. Bett Asia is the region's leading education technology conference and expo, gathering senior education leaders, educators and innovators to share intelligence on how to improve learning in the 21st century. Free to attend this year, the two-day Leadership Summit programme will explore topics nominated by policy and decision makers from K12 to HE which address key opportunities to improve education systems and further student outcomes across Asia. On behalf of the Secretariat, we are pleased to invite you and representative to attend or nominate Administrative staff to participate in the above Leadership Summit.
